The map is a detailed topographic representation of the Chiny area in France. It features the Moselle river flowing through the landscape, with several bridges crossing it. The town of Chiny is labeled in large, bold letters, with 'le Hoïvet' written below it. A prominent feature is the 'Quartier du Fort', which is highlighted in a light purple color. The map shows a network of streets, including 'R. de l'Embarcadere', 'R. du Millenaire', 'R. de la Fontenelle', 'R. de la Gracelle', and 'R. du Fort'. A yellow circle is placed on the map, indicating a specific location near the intersection of 'R. de l'Embarcadere' and 'R. du Millenaire'. The map also includes a compass rose in the top left corner, a scale bar indicating 100 meters, and various contour lines and elevation markers. The overall style is that of a traditional topographic map, with a focus on geographical details and infrastructure.
