

L'Echappée Belle

Attribution : (Alain Verbeke)

Useful information

Category : Cottage

Type of accommodation : Rural gîte

Rating : Expired

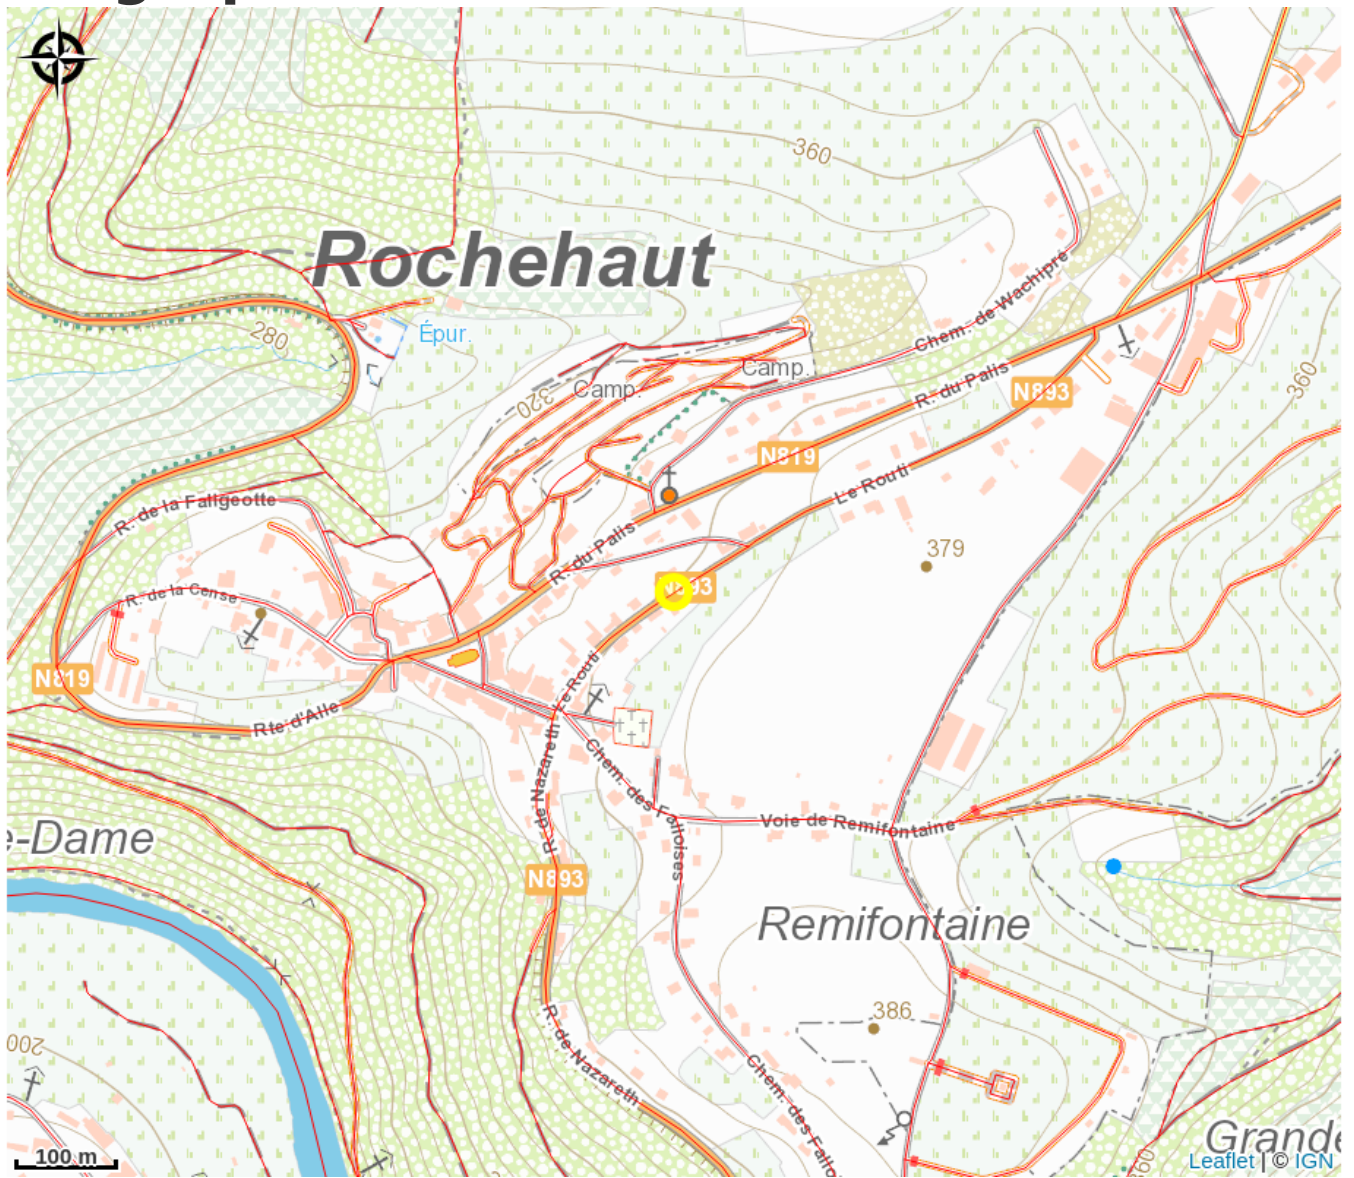

Description

This beautiful house has been completely renovated and will make you fall in love with its bright and contemporary atmosphere. Modern furniture, an authentic touch with the rustic stone of the country, rooms with incomparable comfort, a beautiful suspended terrace with an unobstructed view on the surroundings... the place has a lot of charm to make you spend precious moments, between chats by the fire to remake the world, board games evenings (especially since there are some on the spot!) aperitif on the terrace, wild games of kicker. I promise, it's impossible to get bored here!

It is in the small and very popular village of Rochehaut, near the Semois river, in the province of Luxembourg, that your gite is waiting for you. A magnificent region, where nature reveals itself in all its beauty. To discover it, you have the choice: walking, biking or horseback riding, kayaking down the Semois river, exploring the tourist attractions and small villages nearby... Are you a biking fan? You'll be delighted as well, as there are many superb routes waiting for you!

A beautiful cottage, a superb region, recreational activities, local flavors... The place has everything to seduce you!

Geographical location

All useful information

Contact

39 Le Routi, 6830 - Rochehaut