

The "Roche Percée" site

Attribution : (Bouillon Tourisme)

Useful information

Category : Discovery and recreation

Rating : No rating

Description

A historical site appearing in treaties dating from the middle ages establishing the bishopric boundaries of Reims, Trier and Liege. It also served as border between the dukedom of Bouillon and Luxembourg, downstream from the mouth of the Alleines. A pretty site, close to the old metal industry of the Maka.

Discovery categories

Natural heritage.

Geographical location

All useful information

Contact

6830 - Les Hayons