Description

Visitors to the abbey are shown an audiovisual presentation on the abbey's history and the daily life of its monastic community. They can then visit the ruins of the mediaeval abbey, the museum installed in an eighteenth-century crypt, the pharmaceutical museum and medicinal herb garden and the waymarked history trail with explanatory panels in English. A new exhibition entitled "Les Communs d'Abraham" presents the abbey's exceptional brewing heritage. The famous beer and cheese made by the monks in the monastery is on sale in the visitors' shop, along with books, postcards, souvenirs and religious items. Guidebook and explanatory panels in English. Guided tours in English must be booked at least two weeks in advance.
