

Roche à l'Appel geological reserve in Muno:

Attribution : (Charlie & Billie)

Useful information

Category : Discovery and recreation

Rating : No rating

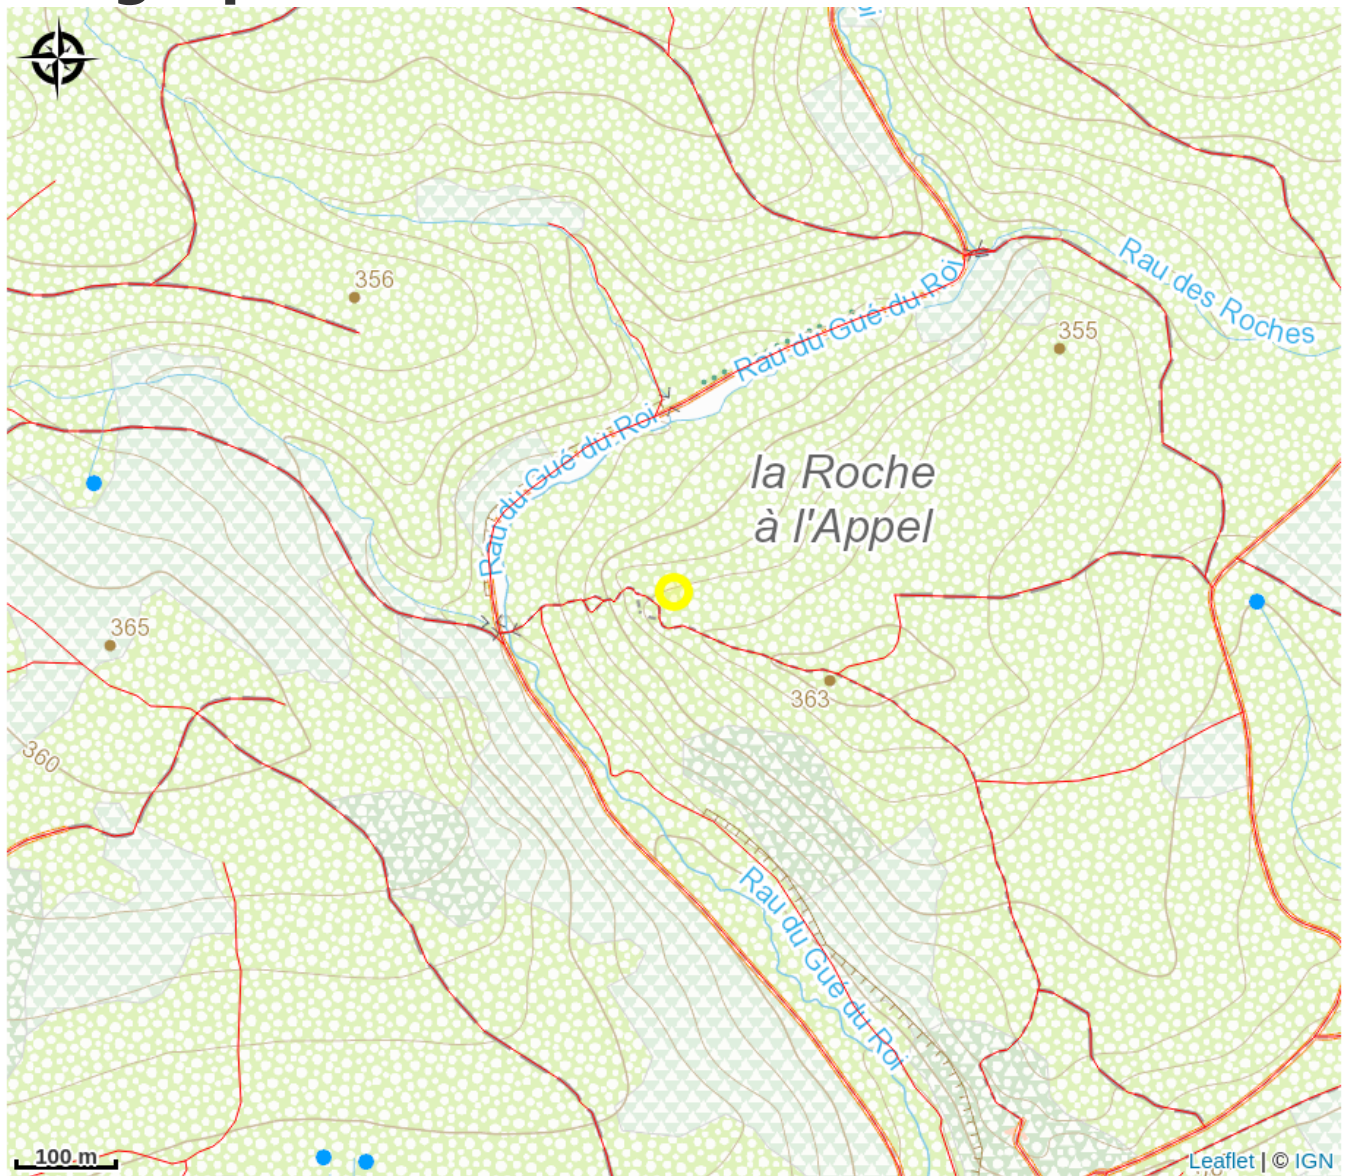

Description

This exceptional Geological curiosity, that belongs to one of the most important natural reserves of Gaume, will offer you a magnificent viewpoint at the heart of the forest of Ardennes! An exceptional geological feature in one of Gaume's major nature reserves in the village of Muno. You will find a beautiful viewpoint in the heart of the Ardennes forest! The Roche à l'Appel is a remarkable geological site and is at the centre of the reserve. Two footpaths provide access to the peak with an unrestricted view over the nearby Ardennes forest and the first two cuestas. If you are coming with children there is a digital game you can play that involves a quest with the fairy Luna and a squirrel monk...

Discovery categories

Natural heritage, Panorama, viewpoint, scenery, Recognised nature park.

Geographical location

All useful information

Contact

6820 - Muno

