Description

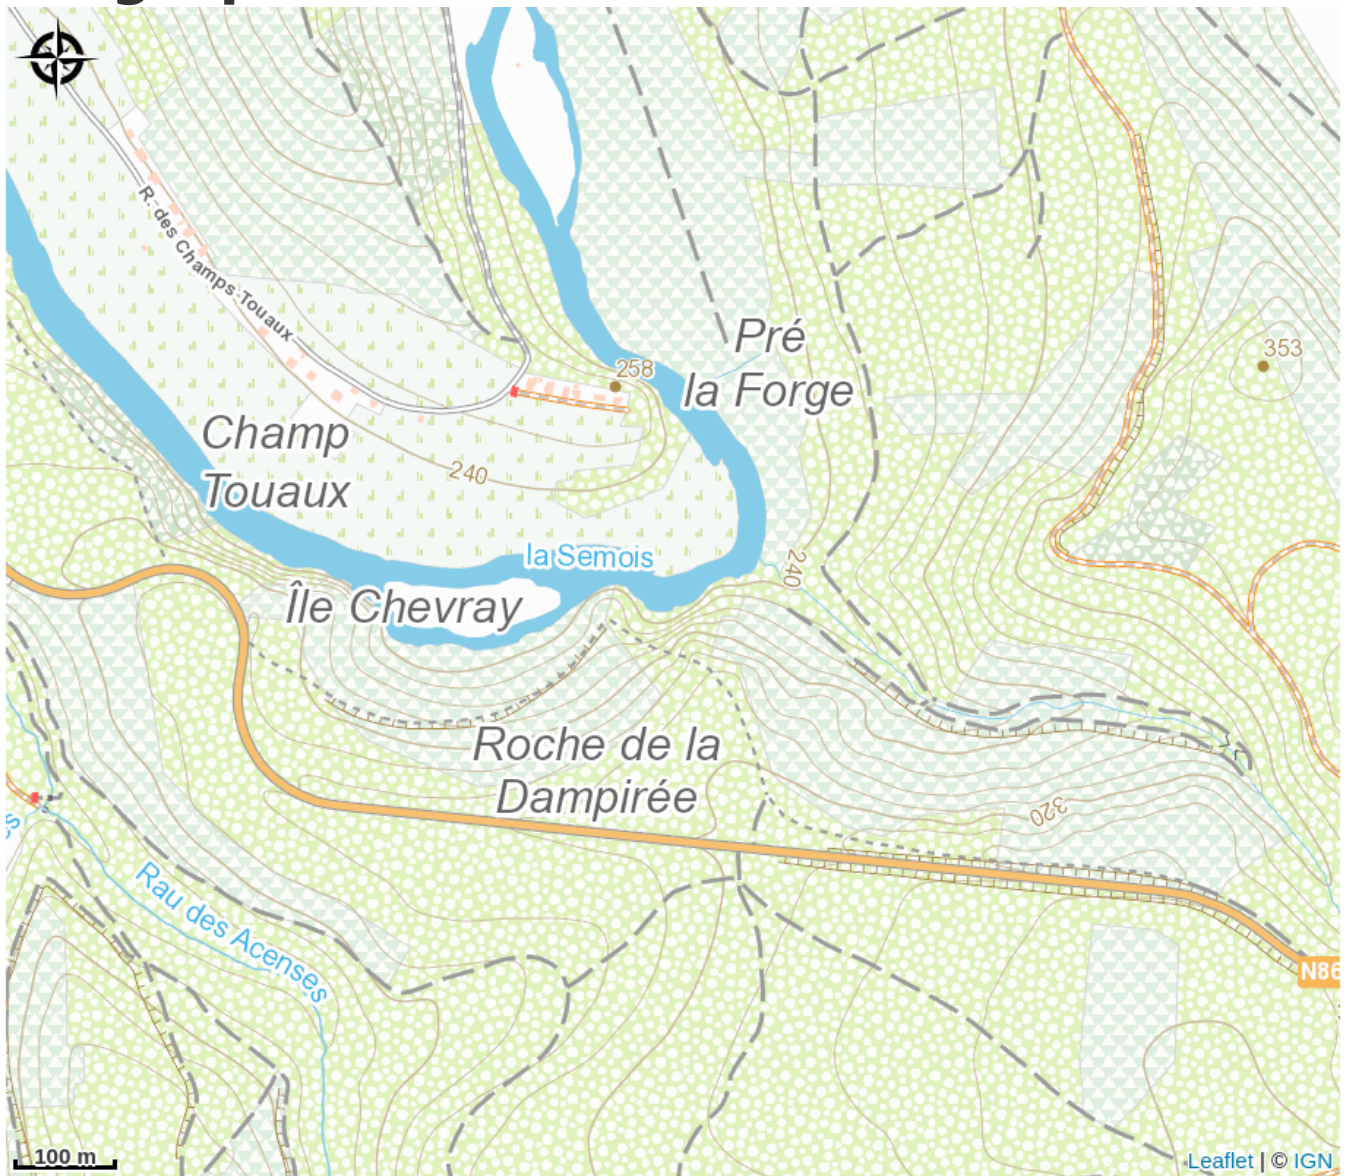

Landscape easy of access by a path, located about 100 meters away from the asphalted road. The Semois river bangs against the rock fence of the forest massive of the Dampirée where there are several vistas if we take the marked walk number 19 or 43.

the alluvial plain of the Champs Touaux comes before the Dohan mill that still has its wheel. The Chevrai island that is just under it reminds of the roe deers' paradise.
