Description

Our bed and breakfast rooms are wonderfully located at the edge of the forest, in the heart of the meadows, in the quiet; they overhang the Semois valley and they will give you an unrestricted and soothing view on the area. This new house, built in 2007 proposes you cosy rooms fitted with TV, DVD readers, wifi, individual shower, sink and WC. There is also a sunny garden where you will relax while your children will play on the swing. A meadow is also at your disposal for your horses to rest. On request, the hostess who has received at her table for over 30 years, will prepare you traditional dishes with local products and vegetables from her garden. There are plenty of walks in the woods in the area and also historical sites (Orval, Bouillon, Virton and so on...), and activities longsid ethe river, a real pleasure for families and nature lovers in search of real values. All our rooms are accessible to people with reduced mobility thanks to special fittings.
