Description

Trois Fontaines, a small, quiet campsite in the middle of nature, is situated in a wooded area in the village of Maissin, part of the commune of Paliseul. We want to spoil you with delicious grandma's cooking and offer you silence and respect for nature, people and animals, a place where sounds are mainly natural and where radio is perceived as disturbing. From 10 p.m. onwards, you will only hear soft voices, so that everyone's night's sleep is guaranteed.
