Description

Charming rural large-capacity gîte (22 people). In the heart of the Belgian Ardennes, in the wooded valley of the Our, close to Redu (the Village of the Book), the Eurospace Center, Daverdisse, Paliseul, come and discover this very charming house, that was made with local stones and completely renovated in 2007.

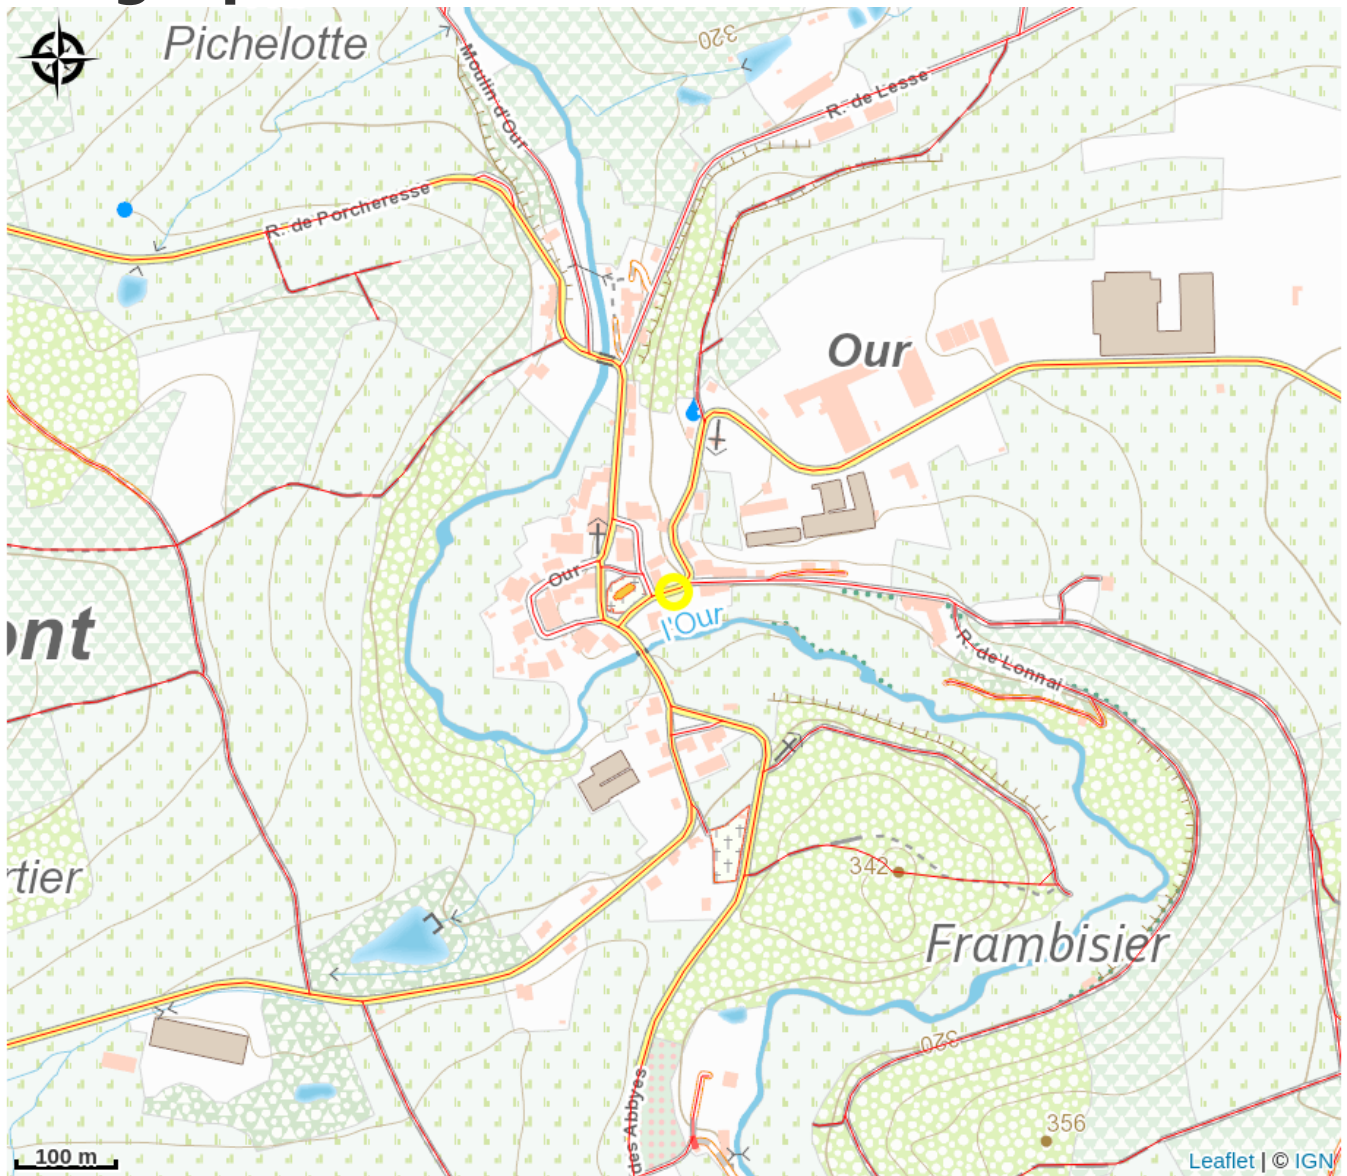

This house is the ideal starting point for plunging in the heart of a beautiful and generous countryside. It is located in an area with an exceptional countryside, in the heart of a private estate wide 1,10 ha with a pond, surrounded by a forest and bordered with the Our river (private angling). The river is here in its most beautiful colours and makes this place to be one of the most peaceful places in the Ardennes.

In this charming house where all has been imagined to make you feel comfortable, you will find serenity, calm and wellness for an unforgettable stay
