This topographic map depicts the Herbeum region in France. The Semois river flows through the area, with several crossings and bridges. Key locations include Dansau to the west, la Hulette to the north, le Planoi to the east, and le Champ le Monde to the south. The map shows a network of roads, including the N884, and various landmarks such as the Camp. and the R. de la Hulette. A yellow circle highlights a specific location near the Semois river, and a scale bar indicates 100 meters.
