

The chapel of Maurice Husson

No photo

Useful information

Category : Discovery and recreation

Rating : No rating

Description

The chapel is located down the village when you come from Bertrix, left round the corner of the first road that went towards the post officer Maurice Husson's path, an inhabitant of Auby who was a prisoner of the German army during the Second World War and who had a chapel erected to thank for his liberation.

This chapel will soon be restored by his granddaughter Marylène.

The four saints (Saint Hubert, Sainte Scholastique, Sainte Thérèse, Sainte Rita) will be scelled in the ground in a concrete that will be coloured with pigments made with transparent resin; the statue of Jesus will be freshened up by being painted in white as the walls. There will be an enlightenment in the ground.

Discovery categories

Built heritage, Religious building.

[illegible]

All useful information

Contact

6880 - Auby-sur-Semois