

Botanical and geographical Arboretum of the Gernelle

Attribution : (Libre de droit)

Useful information

Category : Discovery and recreation

Rating : No rating

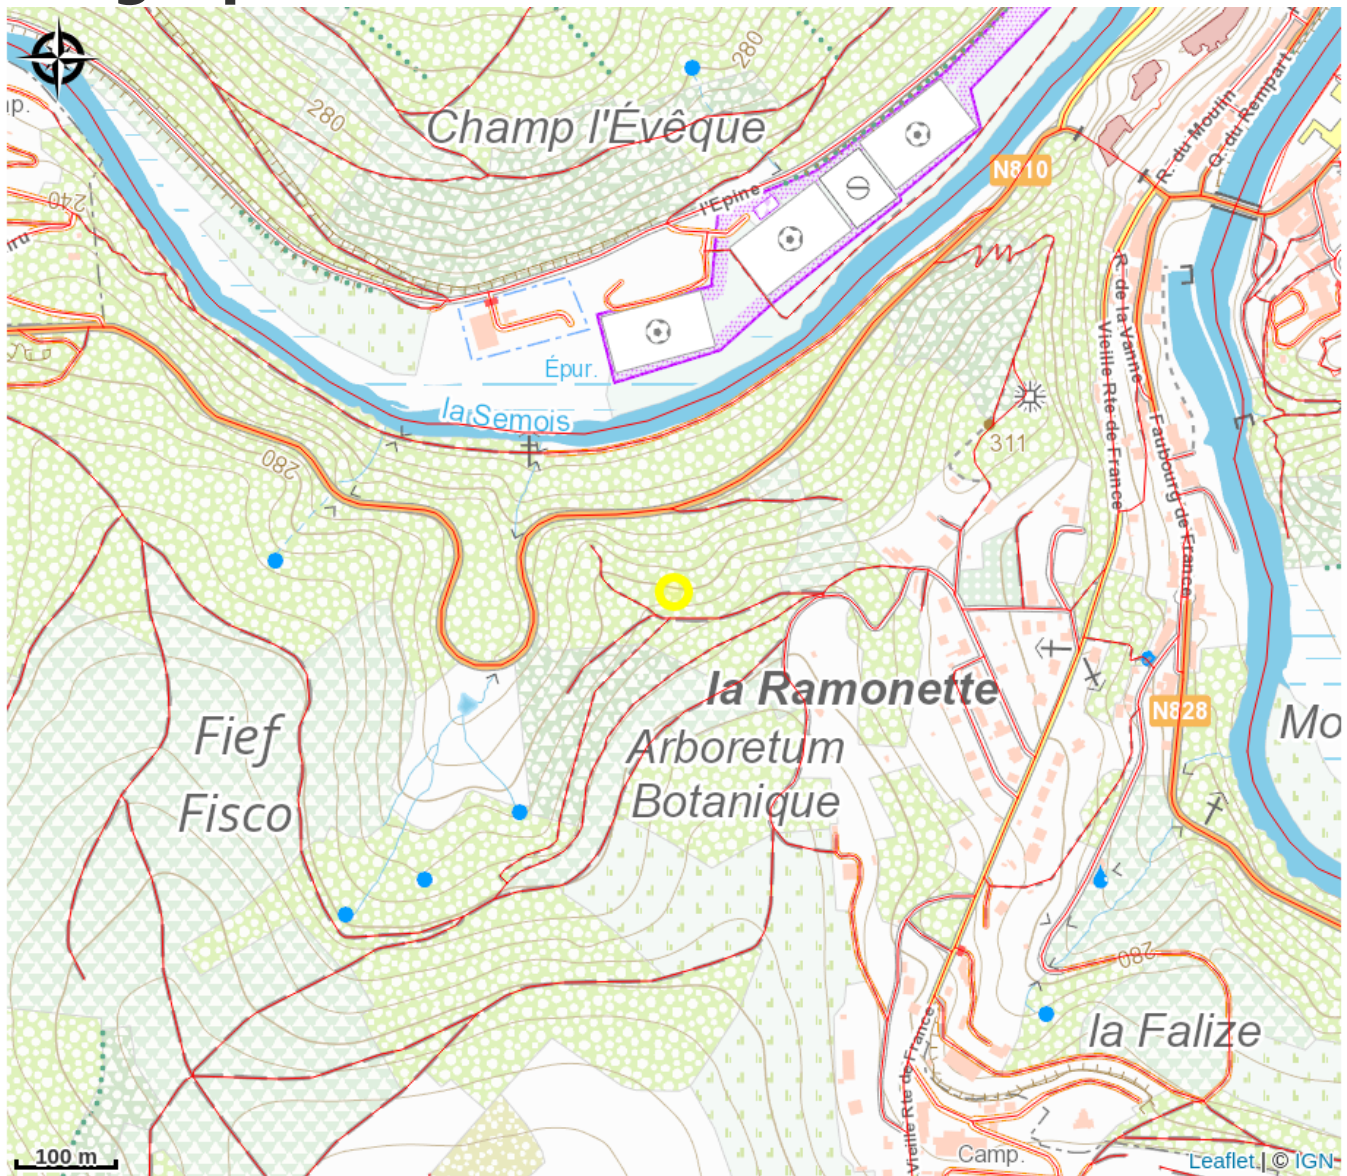

Description

This botanical and geographical Arboretum of 2ha 52 acres was founded in 1906 with notably a great number of exotic essences long pleasant and well-spaced out paths, that come essentially from Asia and from North-America "Rocky Mountains" among which a number two of Belgium, the "Abies grandis" Vancouver fir (15 meters high), douglas, American tulip tree, sequoia, Japanese larch, purple beeches,...

Discovery categories

Built heritage, Park and garden.

Geographical location

All useful information

Contact

6830 - Bouillon

