This walk starts at the arboretum. After 300 m of tarmac road, you will enter the forest. You will then descend to the Pont de la Blanche. This arched bridge is part of the old railway line between Bertrix and Munio, which ceased operations in 1957. On this route, you will follow a section of the RaVel and the "voie des pierres qui parlent". After that, you'll embark on a fairly strenuous climb back to the arboretum, passing through some magnificent spots.
