It's 13 km long but not difficult, given its 226 m gradient. In fact, 1/3 of the walk is on asphalted roads and the rest is on beautiful gravel or dirt tracks. This walk will take you through bucolic farmland, but also through woodland, close to the village of Bertrix and close to the villages of Paliseul and Libin. On a small part of the route, you will discover a section of the historic circuit of the village of Anloy.
