This topographic map of Chanteraine, France, illustrates the town's layout and its relationship with the Semois river. The river flows through the center of the town, with several bridges crossing it. Key roads shown include the N810, N828, and N89. The map features contour lines indicating elevation, with peaks around 320m. A yellow circle highlights a specific location near the river. The town's name, 'Chanteraine', is prominently displayed in the center-right. The map also shows various buildings, including a church and a school, and a compass rose in the top left corner. A scale bar at the bottom left indicates a distance of 100 meters.
