This is a detailed topographic map of a region in France, likely in the Ardennes. The map features the river la Semois flowing from the top left towards the bottom. Several roads are shown, including the N884 (orange line) and various local roads like R. de la Garenne, R. de la Plite, and R. de la Hulette. The terrain is indicated by brown contour lines and green hatched areas representing forests. Key locations labeled include la Garenne, la Plite, la Hulette, and le Fourch. A yellow circle is placed on the road between la Garenne and la Plite. Other features include a campsite (Camp), a church (Eglise), and a small settlement (le Fourch). A scale bar at the bottom left indicates 100 meters, and a compass rose is in the top left corner. The map is sourced from Leaflet and IGN.
